

Xichang University

Key Facts

Scholarships Available

Majors with great prospect

Application Documents

Contact Info

Scholarships

The school currently has two types of scholarships to apply for, One is Provincial Government Scholarship and the other is University Scholarship. Government Scholarship are for undergraduate program and language program. University Scholarship is for undergraduate program ONLY.

Name	Program	Amount	When	Frequency
Government Scholarship	Undergraduate Program	20000 per year/ person	From May to June	Can be applied only once a year
Government Scholarship	Language Program	10000 per year/ person	From May to June	Once selected, the student cannot apply for the next 3 years.
University Scholarship	Undergraduate Program	Level A:3000 Level B:2400 Level C:1800 Semester / person	First month of each semester	Can be applied for each semester

Majors with great prospect

E-Commerce

The major is a National First-Class Professional Construction Site. Graduates can engage in related work in administrative institutions at all levels, industrial and commercial enterprises, financial institutions, information network companies and other fields.

Agriculture

The major has been established as a national-level comprehensive reform pilot major. Graduates can engage in agricultural technology research and development, technology promotion and guidance, production, operation and management, project development, and agricultural product marketing in agricultural administrative institutions, scientific research institutes, agricultural enterprises and other agricultural-related units.

Computer Science and Technology

The major is a Provincial First-Class Professional Construction Site. Graduates can engage in application system analysis, design, development, testing in IT enterprises, including application system management and maintenance, technical support, software product sales, etc. As well as in information management systems in enterprises, institutions, banks and financial companies.

Elementary Education

The major is a Provincial First-Class Professional Construction Site. Graduates can engage in multi-disciplinary and comprehensive teaching work in primary schools such as Chinese, Mathematics, English, Arts and Sports, Science, and can also be engaged in the position of primary education teaching, scientific research and management in related departments .

Application

Application Documents	Application Process
Scanned copy of passport personal information page (passport must be within the validity period)	Students who are willing to apply please pack the documents into a folder and send it to the mailbox of the International Exchange and Cooperation Office before 30th June
High school diploma or pre-graduation certificate
Transcripts of all courses learned in high school	The International Exchange and Cooperation Office and Schools will carry out a preliminary qualification review of the candidates to ensure that the materials are complete, and will review as well the passport, language proficiency and other information; after the preliminary qualification review is completed, the candidates who meet the requirements will be notified of an online interview schedule by email.
Study plan in China (personal introduction, the reason for application, knowledge about the targeted major)
Chinese / English proficiency test certificate or equivalent language proficiency certificate
Foreigner's physical examination form (physical examination shall be completed within 6 months before submission of application)	The International Exchange and Cooperation Office will then carry out an online interview with those candidates who meet the requirements, the requirements of online interview will be notified by email.
Proof of financial support issued by the bank (bank deposit, etc.)
Honor & award certificates or other supporting materials (optional)

Contact Info

ADD:

No.1 XueFu Road, AnNing Town, Xichang
City,Sichuan Province, P.R.CHINA 615000

TEL:

+86-834-2580106

EMAIL:

xccfao@163.com